WRITTEN AND ILLUSTRATED
BY
SGT KEVIN KLIEN
SGT TODD M. HOELMER
If you want to become a soldier, you have to see a recruiter.
There are many jobs to choose from in the National Guard.
Some soldiers learn to parachute from Army planes. When they jump, they yell, "AIRBORNE".
Their training area in helicopters. Sometimes soldiers are taken to "HUMMER"

This vehicle would help a soldier get through jungles, deserts, or across a shallow river.
Soldiers that get sick or injured during training are taken care of by military doctors and nurses.
WOMEN SHARE THE SAME JOBS WITH MEN IN THE GUARD.
A healthy soldier is a happy soldier.

Even soldiers need shots to keep them healthy.
When it's time for Mom or Dad to go to Annual Training, the whole family can help pack.
Most soldiers pack well so this won't happen.

Properly secure loads always.

ConvoY
A soldier learns to breathe in a mask that protects him from dangerous air.
DIG IN

Digging foxholes is hard work, but they serve as protection from the enemy.
PAPERWORK DOESN'T END IN THE FIELD.

'TACTICAL TYPING'

During training, tents are used for offices and hospitals.
ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN AT NIGHT.

It's fun to sleep under the stars during training.
A soldier learns culinary skills!
SOME SOLDIERS
LEARN TO COOK

Most soldiers help out in the kitchen
or mess tents by peeling potatoes, cracking eggs and washing dishes.
Pvt. Joe Snuffy has lost his flashlight. Can you help him find his pup tent in the dark?
WE'RE ALL PART OF THE GUARD FAMILY.

When you turn 10 years old, you will go to the armory to have your picture taken. This picture is put on a special ID card.
Family Support Groups plan picnics and other fun family events.
CHRISTMAS WITH THE GUARD.

EVEN SANTA KNOWS WHERE THE ARMORY IS

Family Days are a special time for families to learn about the National Guard.
You can make Camp Snuffy. Be sure to have Mom or Dad help use the scissors to cut out all the pieces.
BEND THIS SECTION BACK AND STAND
BACK GROUND UPRIGHT

(SKY PORTION ABOVE TREES MAY BE CAREFULLY CUT OUT
FOR MORE REALISTIC EFFECT)

CUT OUT WALL SECTIONS, GIVE TAPE ENDS OR SIDES TO TACK ON WALL FRONT, BEND TO SHAPE SHOWN ON PICTURE.

WALL SIDE
WALL SIDE

WALL FRONT